- AUVA ROADMAP: WHAT'S OUR PLAN FOR OUR COMMUNITY?

- As the part of our dedication towards transparency at the early stages of our community project and goals for AUVA: To be the most rewarding and used token in the DeFi space, with our aim focused towards building a strong community while providing incentives and real-world applications for AUVA tokens (including, games, NFTs, GPU/CPU trading and AUVA payment integration and cloud provider service) during our journey together. We aim to achieve this by capitalizing on AUVA AI utility incentives and meme-inspired appeal, our passionate community, aggressive marketing tactics, and a robust emphasis on practical applications.

This blueprint outlines our focus on practical utility for the foreseeable future. It also details the various products we are currently developing internally and anticipate releasing in the coming months and quarters.

Our plan is ambitious and subject to change as we progress, but as you'll see, we're committed to making AUVA a transformative force in the cryptocurrency landscape for millions worldwide.

- Phase I

- o We are excited to announce the launch of our token, AUVA! Our team of experienced developers, marketers, and content creators who have been victims of rugs and failed projects all came together to create a network fully owned and governed by the community. We are currently working hard to build our communities across Twitter, discord and reddit, ahead of our presale launch coming soon to the Solana Ecosystem, and we're all thrilled to have you join us on this exciting journey. We are committed to keeping our community informed and engaged every step of the way.

With a total supply of 750 million AUVA tokens with 30% released to the early supporters as airdrops, 60% on presale and 10% to VC investors backing our project's long term progress and sustenance with a dedication to making this process as fair and transparent as possible.

Once our token is launched, we'll be listing it on several decentralized exchanges (DEXs), including Pancakeswap, Uniswap, and Jupiter. This will make it easy for you to buy and sell AUVA tokens.

While gearing towards our pre-seed funding round from venture capitalists (VCs) and our community. We're excited to partner with investors who share our vision for the future of AUVA. We'll be sharing more details about our crowdfunding campaign on Seedr and Fjord Foundry, a platform that connects innovative projects and engaged backers through a community-focused platform, offering fair and transparent LBPs and token sale events.

We're committed to building a strong and transparent community around AUVA. We believe that by working together, we can achieve great things. We're excited to share our journey with you and look forward to your support. Thank you for your interest in AUVA!

- Phase II

- Expanding AUVA's reach and partnership we are focused on increasing its accessibility and building strong partnerships. To make AUVA available to a wider audience, we're actively working to list it on major cryptocurrency exchanges, including Binance, OKX, MEXC, and Bybit. This will provide greater liquidity and trading opportunities for AUVA holders.

We believe that strong partnerships are key to AUVA's success. We're currently making steps to secure partnerships with OKX and Coinbase Wallet, which will enhance AUVA's visibility and utility as well as increase community incentives/ rewards.

We'll be launching multiple promotions and public relations campaigns to reach a broader audience and generate traction around the project.

In preparation, we will be launching a Series A funding to fuel AUVA's growth and development. This investment will enable us to expand our team, invest in building new applications that support the use of AUVA's token on its platform rewarding users for "hodling", while setting the stage for new opportunities.

- Phase III

Community-Driven Decentralized Exchange

To democratize access to computing resources, our team of full-stack developers are effortlessly working around the clock to launch a community-governed decentralized exchange (DEX) for cloud CPU and GPU trading and tokenization.

Leveraging blockchain technology, this platform will enable users to directly trade computing resources, making the platform easy to use, with a laptop and internet connection your computer can generate millions for you, eliminating intermediaries and ensuring fair pricing.

Our DEX will incorporate advanced features like tokenized computing power using NFT integration as a means for other users to make money from spot-trading the increase in demand for your computing resources, smart contracts for automated transactions, and a robust security infrastructure to protect user assets.

Integration with DeFi Platforms and Cloud Providers

We're committed to expanding AUVA's utility by integrating it with leading DeFi platforms, cloud computing services and financial payment systems. By establishing seamless connections with these ecosystems, we'll create opportunities for users to leverage their AUVA tokens for lending, borrowing, and accessing cloud resources. This integration will foster a vibrant DeFi ecosystem around AUVA, providing additional value to token holders.

Partnerships with Industry Leaders

These collaborations will grant us access to cutting-edge hardware and software technologies, enabling us to develop high-performance computing solutions. By combining our expertise with theirs, we aim to set new standards for decentralized computing.

Open-Source Development

We believe in the power of open collaboration. To foster innovation and transparency, we'll adopt an open-source development model. By sharing our codebase and inviting community contributions, we'll create a thriving ecosystem of developers and enthusiasts. This approach will ensure that AUVA remains at the forefront of technological advancements and aligns with the core principles of decentralization.

- Phase IV
